

Religion and Human Rights (RHR 2.0)

Newsletter 2015-6

Dear colleagues

This is the last newsletter in 2015 and there are only a few topics I would like to share with you:

1) Conference Zagreb

The conference in Zagreb is behind us, and that it was a very good conference is mainly due to the fact that we have had wonderful hosts and a well prepared meeting. Therefore I again would like to express my gratitude to Marijana Kompes, Gordan Črpić and all others in the team.

Here you can find some photos from the first evening:

3) Publication

You are invited to offer your paper for publication in the Brill series. Please read the attached guidelines carefully. The deadline for submission is set for 31 March 2016.

2) Minutes

Attached to this letter are the minutes of our business meeting to inform the colleagues who could not attend the Zagreb conference.

4) Publications regarding religion and human rights 2015

The program-website contains a list of publications. When we refer to the project, it is helpful to show that – on the international level – a good number of publications are available. Please check if you can add titles (chapters in books, articles in journals...) and send them to us, regardless whether they are in English or any other national language. It makes it easier for us if you follow the format we have used before (see the weblink). A response until mid-January would be great.

5) International dataset

In the meantime, we have received datasets from Italy, India and Norway – thank you. We will put them together carefully.

The year is ending very soon. Thanks to all of you for the cooperation and collaboration in 2015. Merry Christmas and a good start into 2016,

Hans-Georg Ziebertz
